

Cancer Quality of Life Survey

Easy Read version

Quality of life outcomes are important.

They helps us to understand the impact of cancer and its treatment, and how well people are living after treatment.

The Cancer Quality of Life Survey aims to measure quality of life for people with cancer.

It asks how you are feeling and how having cancer may have changed your life.

Please fill in the survey when you receive it.

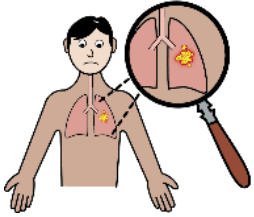

Your answers will help us to make cancer services better.

How do I fill it in?

The Cancer Quality of Life Survey is being run by a company called Quality Health on behalf of the NHS.

You will be invited to take part in the Cancer Quality of Life Survey if you have been told you have cancer.

You will be sent the survey around 18 months after being told you have cancer.

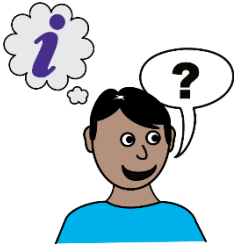

You can complete the survey online, on paper, or over the phone.

You will be sent an easy read guide to help you fill in the survey.
